Message from the Executive Officer

Greetings from the helm! I hope you all have had a safe and somewhat enjoyable summer boating season despite the rain and massive tides. Perhaps you could share some of the more interesting boating highlights from this season with the membership.

I want to understand how we can improve our Squadron's mission areas of education and safety as well as develop more on-the-water social activities. In the primary mission areas we are doing pretty well teaching the basic courses however I don't see many requests for advanced courses like marine electronics, weather and solar or stellar navigation. Given the high caliber of the courses and instructors we have available to us, combined with the low cost, I wonder why this is so. To keep the Squadron going, we will need to train additional instructors. Being an instructor is not difficult and is very rewarding when you see the students beginning to grasp new information and concepts. The Vessel Safety Certificate inspections reward you each time you uncover some potentially dangerous condition on someone's boat and are able to advise the owner on the best course of action to take in correcting the situation and potentially saving real lives (more on page 4).

Please tell me if you are interested, even if you don't know where you'll find the time yet. Contact me at XO@nvsp.org. We also have some Bridge, Committee and Member at Large positions that we'll need to fill in the Spring. If you have questions on how you can help keep the squadron going, please email or call me at the number on page 2.

As communications are always key in any organization, please visit our website regularly for the events schedule and this online newsletter. On that site, you will also see links to our Facebook page, which is an ideal place to comment with photos that you want to share with the membership.

I hope to see you at our meetings and to setup more on-the-water "rendezvous" for both day trips and overnights but first we'll need to establish where all the member boats are being kept. Between boats? No problem, you can ride with those of us that have boats or you can drive your own vehicle if the event is an overnight trip. Please send me your ideas. As a suggestion, one of my favorite places to go given that I boat in the Potomac River continues to be Colonial Beach where there are rooms available with boat slips and golf cart rental to get you to the watering holes around town. It's like being transported back into the 60's! A great Friday to Sunday trip!

At your service,

*LT/C Sean Gallagher, JN
Executive Officer, NVSPS
XO@nvsp.org*

Member at Large Opening—Looking for someone who is interested in shaping the future of the squadron and can attend most Executive Committee Meetings and General Membership Meetings. Contact Sean Gallagher or Alan Hart.

From the Vessel Safety Check Chair P/C Rich Unis, JN

The VSC program is a very important ongoing public service effort sponsored by the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, the United States Power Squadrons and BoatUS. Qualified Vessel Examiners (VEs) from both organizations provide courtesy safety checks to mariners to ensure required safety equipment is aboard and in operational condition. In addition, the VEs discuss safe boating practices while conducting their reviews to ensure boaters are well informed of their responsibilities. Most importantly, VEs award the VSC decal to boat owners whose vessels meet the minimum safety requirements. The decals are affixed to the port side of a boat in plain view of marine law enforcement personnel (US Coast Guard and Auxiliary personnel, Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries Officers and Maryland Department of Natural Resource Police, etc). Merely having the decal won't guarantee a vessel won't be stopped and boarded but it does send a message to the boating law enforcement personnel and the public that the boat owner is conscientious and took the time to ensure they had the proper safety equipment on board. It's still up to the boat owner/operator to comply with boating laws and regulations.

We could conduct far more VSCs but we need more VEs. If you would like to become a VE, please let me know. You will need to study the VSC manual and take a quick certification exam, then conduct five VSCs in the presence of a qualified VE before becoming certified and able to conduct them on your own. It's not overly difficult and it's a lot of fun. I particularly enjoy meeting other boaters and assisting them to ensure their vessel contains all of the required safety equipment in order to meet the requirements to be awarded the VSC decal. You never know when your efforts just might save a life. Besides that, it's a great learning experience. I have already learned a lot about various vessels. Come join the program!

Big News from the Sea Scout Ship 1942.

The ship has obtained a refurbished equipment trailer and painted it to show how proud they are of the awards they have earned.

It's great for taking equipment to their two boat locations, Washington Sailing Marina and the Solomons, MD fleet and....

- transporting their large tent for ground training, camping
- transporting Scouts gear for camping trips, Camp Able, and Life Guard Camp
- Movement of heavy cooking gear and other supplies to major training events, freeing up room in cars for carrying maximum number of Scouts
